INTERNATIONAL DAY

The sights and sounds of ethnic Morton Grove will again fill the Morton Grove Public Library when it presents "INTERNATIONAL DAY" on Sunday, December 7 at 1:30 P.M.

The afternoon's festivities will feature musical soloists singing and playing the songs of Israel, France, Germany, Scotland, and Japan. Morton Grove residents will model their native costumes in a colorful fashion show and there will be various exhibits and demonstrations of foreign arts and crafts.

Refreshments will be served and everyone in the village is urged to come and enjoy a lovely afternoon with their neighbors at "INTERNATIONAL DAY."

THE ENERGY DILEMMA

Dr. Irwin Ginsburgh, Morton Grove author and physicist, will present a lecture at the Library on "Energy Prices; Past, Present and Future" on Tuesday, December 2 at 7:30 P.M.

Dr. Ginsburgh holds many patents in industrial development and his lecture will attempt to provide insights into the present oil and gasoline dilemma.

Dr. Ginsburgh recently lectured at the Library on his book, "First Man, Then, Adam", which is a scientific interpretation of the Book of Genesis. Everyone is welcome to attend his timely and important lecture on the energy dilemma.

TRAVELOGUES

A special holiday travelogue on Sweden will be presented at the Library on Tuesday, Dec. 9 at 7:30 P.M.

A travel film on Sweden will be followed by a performance of Swedish folk dances by the Nordic Folk Dancers of Chicago. This group of Scandinavians has performed all over the Midwest and has had the honor of performing for the King of Sweden when he visited Chicago in 1976.

Their traditional dances represent the various provinces of Sweden as do their colorful costumes. It will be a treat to see them dancing on the new stage in the Baxter Room, so do come and join us in welcoming them to Morton Grove on December 9!

The rugged beauty of New Zealand will be shown at the travelogue on Tuesday, Jan. 13 and the mysteries of ancient Egypt will be revealed at the travelogue on Tuesday, Feb. 10.

Everyone is invited to join us at all our travelogues throughout the year in the new Baxter Room of the Library.

BOOK REVIEW

When Ingrid Bergman left her husband and child for Roberto Rosselini, the whole world shuddered and howled for her blood. She went from the top film star in the world down to oblivion.

Barbara Todd will re-create the triumphant story of this great actress when she reviews "My Story" by Ingrid Bergman and Alan Burgess on Sunday, Feb. 8 at 2:30 and on Mon., Feb. 9 at 7:30 P.M.

A woman whose talent, spirit and honesty overcame all the threats to her life and her career, Ingrid Bergman remains one of the legends of our time and her story is a fascinating one.

FROM THE LIBRARIAN'S DESK.....

The Library Board and members of the staff want to wish all of you, our patrons, a very happy holiday season! As you open your personal gifts, we'd like to have you remember some of the good things we can provide for you at the Library throughout the year.

The addition to the building has made it possible for us to provide typing rooms and a room equipped for the visually handicapped with large magnifiers and some Braille writers. One magnifier is portable and may be checked out. The new small conference room adjoining the Board Room is equipped with a 42" television set, a video cassette player and a tele-caption adaptor for the hearing-impaired. When that room is not being used for library purposes, patrons are welcome to come in and view television, which will shortly be on the cable system. A call ahead for room availability would be advised.

Video cassettes for home viewing are now available in VHS, Beta or U-Matic format. The Library's collection of audio cassettes is growing, and old radio show buffs will be pleased to know that we have acquired some new titles.

We are proud of the new Local History Room which houses our entire local newspaper collection and many other items of historical interest. It is open Monday, Wednesday and Thursdays evenings from 7 to 9 and Sundays from 1 to 5, and the librarians can get materials from it for patrons any time during Library hours.

All parts of the Library are now easily accessible with the new elevator and the physically handicapped will welcome the two parking spaces reserved for them just outside the new entrance.

Every year we are grateful to the women of Morton Grove Garden Club who decorate the Library so beautifully for the holidays, and to the Campfire girls who trim the tree in the Children's Room. This year we are also indebted to Beverly Copeland of the Northwest Suburban Jewish Congregation for providing Hanukkah decorations.

Come and see us during this joyful season and throughout the year. We welcome you!

Joan G. Stewart

ART EXHIBITS

Morton Grove artist, Phero Thomas, will present a lecture-demonstration on WOOD-CUT PRINTS on Thursday, January 8 at 7:30 P.M. and an exhibit of his work will be on display in the Baxter Room throughout January.

Mr. Thomas is a self-trained artist who developed his talent in the Army. He specializes in wood-cut prints for book illustrations and many of his works have become art prints.

In December, Helen VanTempera will exhibit her oils and acrylics. She is a graduate of the Art Institute with a B.A. in Art Education. Her work ranges from realism to the abstract.

Virginia Sterling, a member of the Morton Grove Art Guild, will exhibit her paintings in February. She has studied at the Village Art Gallery in Skokie and has exhibited in various banks and theaters in the area, as well as at art fairs.

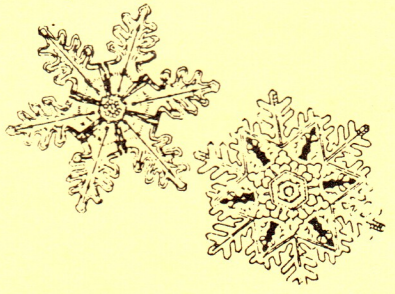
ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

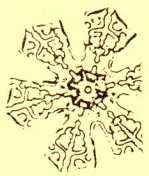
Because of the great need in our community, the Morton Grove Library will inaugurate English classes for foreign-speaking Morton Grove residents. A class will be held on Wednesdays at 7:30 P.M. beginning on December 10 and on Saturdays at 10 A.M. beginning on December 13.

Registration for classes will begin on Sunday, December 7 at INTERNATIONAL DAY and will be taken any time thereafter. The class will be open to any foreign-speaking person desiring English instruction.

The classes will be free and will be taught by Nora Elegreet, a teacher and linguist who is a consultant to the National College of Education in Evanston.

Come to the Library and learn English, free of charge!





WEIGHT CONTROL

The holidays are coming and so are more pounds - on our figures! Learn how to take off those extra pounds with our two-part program on WEIGHT CONTROL, presented by Helen Axelrood on Thursday, Jan. 15 and Thurs. Jan. 22 at 7:30 P.M.

Mrs. Axelrood is an educator, therapist, and an expert on weight reduction. She is also a Ph.D candidate in Adult and Adolescent Psychopathology. She will evaluate weight problems and will instruct on planning and maintaining a weight reduction program. Do come and take advantage of this excellent seminar.

FEELING GOOD ABOUT YOURSELF

By the time February rolls around, we all need something to perk us up and our program, FEELING GOOD ABOUT YOURSELF will do just that.

This lecture-discussion will be presented by Paula Gross Leslie on Tuesday, Feb. 3 at 7:30 P.M. and will focus on understanding and eliminating anxiety and guilt and moving into new situations with confidence.

Ms. Leslie is a therapist and counselor and her program will be of benefit to everyone.

HEALTH PROGRAMS

The Morton Grove Health Dept. will again sponsor monthly programs at the Library on health problems.

On Monday, January 26, at 7:30 P.M., Terri Levin of the Suburbia Medical Group in Glenview will present EAT,DRINK AND BE WARY, a program about proper nutrition and diet.

Ms. Levin will also present a lecture on DISEASES OF THE AGING PROCESS on Monday, February 23 at 7:30 P.M. Both programs are free to the public.

TRASH OR TREASURE

Do you have any antique china hiding in your attic or any antique jewelry nestling in your drawer? If you do have some antique articles, bring them to the program, TRASH OR TREASURE, presented at the Library on Tuesday, Jan. 27 at 7:30 P.M. by Lynn Seplowin, owner of UNIQUE ANTIQUES at 8507 Fernald Ave.

Lynn will talk about the latest in antiques and will evaluate the "trash or treasure" brought by the audience.

Please join us for an evening of fun and antique treasure-hunting!

KELLY SERVICES

"Do you really want to work?" "Can you work and maintain your current life-style?"

These are questions women ask when they consider re-entering the business world and working in later life.

KELLY SERVICES will present the program, "From the Oven to the Office" on Thursday, February 19 at 1:30 P.M. to help women who are considering returning to work. What it takes to enter the office world and what options are open to women today will be discussed.

Everyone interested is welcome to attend this valuable discussion.

ADULT FEATURE FILMS

The Library will again present a program of adult feature films through the winter on Wednesdays at 2:30 and 7:30 P.M.

The series will feature comedies and musicals from the vintage years of Hollywood. Included will be such gems as GUYS AND DOLLS and LILIES OF THE FIELD. For a complete listing of all films, please consult the Calendar on page 2.
